Last Updated: 01/15/2023

Disclaimer:

The list provided below will allow you to find various contractors that are currently licensed with the Municipality of Norristown. This license should not be confused with Pennsylvania's Home Improvement Contractors (HIC) registration.

Contractors listed below have paid an annual license fee to the Municipality. As contractors' insurance certificates expire at various times during the course of the year, consumers should always request a current certificate of insurance from anyone performing work on their home or business.

The provided list is not a recommendation or endorsement of any particular contractor or company.
